

The first meeting of SAFE in this academic year

Oct 19, 2018

In an engaging atmosphere, the Student Association of the Faculty of Education and Humanities (SAFE) held their first meeting in the 2018/19 academic year on Wednesday, 18 October 2018.

Apart from the senior and new members of the association, the meeting was attended by the Dean of Faculty of Education and Humanities Prof. Senad Becirovic, Head of English Language and Literature Department Prof. Amna ?eljo-Brdarevic and teaching assistant Mersad Dervic. Many new members from both departments, English Language and Literature and Graphic Design and Multimedia, were warmly welcomed and ardently taken a chance to exchange their valuable involvements and experiences with senior members of the association. In a very relaxing ambient, Berina Šijerkic, a 4th year student of English Language and Literature Department, with the agreement of all members was appointed as a new potential leader of the SAFE association.

In the end, the upcoming activities were eagerly presented and enthusiastically welcomed by all members. They also proposed their own ideas and suggestions to make a new academic year as fulfilling, educational, and enjoyable as the previous ones. All academic staff together with senior and new association members are looking forward to a new and rewarding academic year.
